HPD Looking for Person Involved in Theft

February 14, 2011

The Harrisonburg Police Department is looking to the community for help with a recent theft.

Earlier today, an unknown person took a tire and rim from a vehicle in the parking lot of Lowes, 201 Linda Lane. The incident happened sometime between 8 a.m. and 12:30 p.m.

The victim's vehicle, a 2006 black four-door Nissan Sentra, was propped up on a rock while the offender removed the tire.

HPD is asking for information from anyone, who may have been in the area during this time frame and witnessed the incident.

Since October 2010, HPD has taken seven additional reports, where someone has stolen tires and rims from vehicles.

Anyone with information is asked to call Crime Solvers at 540-574-5050.
